THE REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET AND PLATFORM.

The Republican State Convention has done its work and done it well. It has presented to the people a ticket and platform upon which every Republican can heartily unite.

The platform is fully up to the requirements of the times, and just such a platform as the people have been wanting for many years. There is no uncertain ring about it; every note sounds sharp and clear. It is written in such plain English that there can be but one construction. In short the party reaffirms the cardinal doctrines, and upon State matters declares that there shall be no repeal or modification of the bullion tax law; declares that if a Republican Legislature is elected there shall be legislation upon fares and freights; declares that "The Chinese Must Go;" and, generally, places the party in full accord with the wants of the people. It is a glorious declaration of principles, and the character of the men nominated is the best evidence that it will be lived up to in its entirety.

NOMINEE FOR CONGRESS.

R. M. Daggett is the nominee for Congress. Probably no man in the State is so well known as Daggett. His name is inseparable from the Enterprise. He is acknowledged the best newspaper writer on the coast. He is a man among men, a giant in intellect, sharp in debate, has a great warm heart, and as a Republican stands at the head of the list. No man is entitled to more from the people of this State. He would be a representative of the whole State. No corporation covers his neck, nobody can justly claim him for their own man. He does his own thinking, his own talking, and Right is always uppermost in his mind. It is of vast importance to the country that men of Daggett's stamp should be in Congress. The Nation will be safe with men of his class. We have no doubt of his election, but the majority should be as large as possible.

GOVERNOR KINKEAD.

We call him Governor, for John H. Kinkead is certain to be at the head of Executive affairs of this State for the next four years; possibly eight. A man of solid worth and integrity; a plebeian, yet bright in all the attributes that endear him to all; honest and capable; warm hearted and generous to a fault; true to his friends; a pioneer of the country; a laboring man; one who believes that Labor should go hand in hand with Capital, yet Labor is to have the benefit of all doubts; a man capable of receiving and entertaining State visitors in a hospitable manner; fully alive to the wants of the masses and determined to protect them; a man without money, in fact poor in this world's goods, yet rich in mind and heart, rich in honesty and integrity. No Republican should fail to vote for him; many Democrats have too much sense to vote against him.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

Harry R. Migele, editor of the Carson Appeal, the nominee of the party for Lieutenant Governor, also deserves well of his party, the people and his country. He was a soldier when soldiers were needed, and when not serving in that capacity, has aided his country with his pen, and "The Pen is mightier than the Sword." His experience as Speaker of the Assembly eminently qualifies him to act as President of the Senate.

CONTROLLER.

J. F. Hallock, of Piobie, will be the next Controller of State. He is thoroughly qualified for the position; his friends declare him a ripe scholar, a true gentleman, and a man certain to be foremost in protecting and looking after the interests of the State.

SECRETARY OF STATE.

James N. Babcock, of Steyer, is the nominee for the important position of Secretary of State. Mr. Babcock is an accommodating gentleman, and it would be a pleasure to do business with him. Though the office is mostly a clerical one, yet connected to it are important duties which demand that the position shall be filled by one who is fully capable. Babcock is the man.

STATE TREASURER.

L. L. Crockett, of Reno, is the nominee for State Treasurer. The Convention has our thanks for this compliment. Mr. Crockett is a strong man for the position. He is not only a strong man but a good man, and he will have no trouble in giving the necessary bond, even though a million dollars should be required. Mr. Crockett has been identified with the State from its infancy; has held many positions of public and private trust, and has a record second to no other man in the State. We vouch for him as being as good a custodian of the Treasury as could be selected, and we hope his majority will be 5,000.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.

M. A. Murphy, of Arco, for Attorney General, warmly endorsed for the position by Judge Hawley and Judge Whitman, a recommendation sufficient to cause all to vote for him. Mr. Murphy has been in Esmeralda since 1863, where he has built up an extensive practice.

SURVEYOR GENERAL.

We again thank the Convention for the compliment paid Reno and Washoe county in the nomination of A. J. Hatch for Surveyor General. Mr. Hatch, we guess, has been a surveyor ever since he was able to carry a chain and handle a compass. For many years he has been Co. Surveyor here, and a U. S. Mineral Deputy, and in that position he surveyed a majority of the lands in this State. His fitness for the position must therefore be conceded.

SUPREME COURT CLERK.

The Convention paid C. F. Bicknell the compliment of a renomination. During his present term Mr. Bicknell has shown that he was the right man in the right place.

As everybody concurs in this opinion, the Democratic candidate will find that the campaign will proceed as usual should he choose to remain at home.

SUPREME JUDGE.

Hon. Thos. P. Hawley, the present Chief Justice of our Supreme Court, was complimented with the nomination by acclamation. If there is one man above another who is the people's candidate that man is Tom Hawley. A pure man and incorruptible Judge; no money can buy him; no corporation can influence him; a credit to the Bench and a man whom to remove would be a public calamity. Irrespective of party every voter in the State should vote to retain him on the Bench. Our Judiciary should be kept pure, and when we have a Judge like Hawley it should be our first duty to keep him on the Bench.

SUPERVISOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

J. D. Hammond is the nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction, and is in every way qualified for the position; a teacher of long experience; a fine scholar, an eloquent speaker, a true gentleman. Hammond will be an officer who will do the State credit.

Thus the Republicans have presented to the people a list of candidates selected with regard to peculiar fitness for the respective positions, fairly to party, availability, and proper respect to all sections of the State. That the people will endorse the action of the Republican State Convention we do not doubt; neither do we doubt that the best interests of the State will be subserved thereby.

DISTRICT JUDGE, SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Charles S. Varian is the Republican candidate for Judge of the 2d Judicial District, composed of the counties of Washoe, Ormsby and Douglas. Mr. Varian is one of the very best lawyers in the district, and is warmly endorsed by the Bar for the position of District Judge. We believe that he would make a good Judge, discharging the duties of the position with fidelity to the true interests of litigants, studying carefully the rights of all, being only actuated by a desire to do justice to all. This is the more natural for the reason that he is a young man, the world before him, hence his future is entirely of his own making. His mind is too evenly balanced to intentionally cause him to make any mistakes. There is no question of his competency, his standing as a lawyer in the district, and his position of U. S. District Attorney of Nevada is sufficient recommendation. His interests are all here in Washoe county, and his election as Judge will be a great convenience to this people and the Bar of Washoe county. The complaint has been often made that on account of the Judge living in another county, the interests of Washoe have been often neglected. Now if this be so, there should be no further complaint, and we fail to do so. No sane party, nor alone pride of country, nor alone personal, but every consideration demands that Washoe should be best for C. S. Varian for District Judge.

WORKINGMEN.

WORKINGMEN'S PLATFORM.

RESOLVED, 1st. That all preservation of property is not law of the land, the principle applied to governments as to individuals.

2d. That the existence of the Chinese in the United States is detrimental and injurious to the present and future welfare of the country, and that the Chinese should be taxed a sum equivalent to that part of the Burlingame treaty permitting immigration of the Chinese.

3d. That the Chinese shall be taxed a per capita sum of one dollar annually, to be used for the purpose of creating a sinking fund to prosecute and defend Chinese suits at law.

4th. That no Chinese shall be employed for wages upon any public works, except those which are to be performed by any public officer in, around or upon any public building.

5th. That the Workingmen's party is unqualifiedly opposed to the division and subdivision of land to any corporate bodies, associations or individuals, as wrong in principle and injurious and detrimental to the future growth and prosperity of our country.

6th. That all State and Government work should be done by the day.

7th. That the Central Pacific Railroad is a public service, and therefore a law, therefore a law should be passed to the effect that no discrimination shall be made in freight or fares for or against any town through which it may pass.

8th. That the Workingmen's party will support any law which will prohibit the bringing of Chinese or other corporate bodies to associations or individuals, whether improved or otherwise shall be assessed at full cash value, and all unimproved lands shall be assessed at the same rate of taxation as adjoining improved lands.

9th. That all Government bonds be taxed for the benefit of the State, and therefore a law should be passed to the effect that no discrimination shall be made in freight or fares for or against any town through which it may pass.

10th. That all State and Government bonds be taxed for the benefit of the State, and therefore a law should be passed to the effect that no discrimination shall be made in freight or fares for or against any town through which it may pass.

11th. NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Total yellow fever deaths up to date, 11,430. The disease rages.

Kearney wants the Boston Workmen to nominate city officers, and will hold "sand lot" meetings on the Commons.

Eleven chairmen of the House committees have already been defeated either for re-election or renomination to Congress.

A cry of fire caused a panic in a crowded Liverpool theater and thirty seven persons were killed and many were wounded in the rush for the doors.

The Clyde ship builders have notified their workmen of a reduction of 7% per cent. in their wages, to date from the 22d of the present month. The reduction effects 40,000 employees.

The Russians claim that the territory between Constantinople and Adriano ple is not affected by the treaty of Berlin, therefore under the preliminary treaty of San Stefano they have a right to occupy it until a definite treaty shall be concluded.

Thornburgh pursued the flying Cheyennes until they led him into a wilderness, where after suffering from thirst for a long time they had to give up the chase. At one time they were so close to the hostiles that they had to abandon some stock.

It was stated in Chicago on the authority of the officers of the Pullman Palace Car Company, that the late cashier of that corporation, Chas. W. Angel, who decamped a short time ago with $120,000 of the company's funds, has been arrested and now is in jail in Norfolk, Virginia.

It is now well known that Acklen has been retired, and that the committee found him guilty of the charges made by Smith, to a great extent. He has lost all of his political friends as a result, and is truly more an object for commiseration than for wrath.

Now that Sayler has been defeated for Congress, Cox announces himself as a candidate for Speaker. The friends of Blackburn say the chances of the latter for gaining the Speakership are greatly improved by the defeat of Sayler. They say that he will be the choice of the solid South and that Randall will have no strength from that section.

The recent storm on the Georgia coast inflicted great damage upon the rice crop. Much of it was irretrievably lost. On the Altamaha the damage was heavy. At least two-thirds of the crop had been cut and stacked, and as the water covered the ground from three to five feet deep, all of it was injured and much of it either ruined or washed away.

WHAT THE FAIR SHOWS.

LETTER FROM PARIS.

Paris, Sept. 9, 1878.
Since the commencement of the era of Peace, seventeen years ago, the world has witnessed—International Exhibitions notwithstanding—no less than ten horrible wars in Turkey, the Crimea, India, China, Italy, America, Germany and France, to say nothing of internecine wars in Spain and Mexico, and hostilities with savage tribes all over the earth. So, pray your frans at a droit de faire; surrender your ticket at the Porte Rapp; take your fill of the sights and scenes of the Trocadero, and the Champ de Mars; but forbear to yield to the pleasing hallucination that International Exhibitions have any thing to do with politics. If people want to go to war they will set to cutting one another's throats at apparently the most inopportune season; at dinner time, or during the long vacation, during church time, or on Sunday, or on

DERBY DAY.

Again, when his blood is up, will not stay his hand because Abel is just finishing a beautiful model of Mesopotamia in carvel cork. There is a sight to be seen—included in the twenty sous admission to the Palace of the Champ de Mars—which to my mind deserves attention, since it is undeniably a rarity, literally unique; and when it reaches its destined home at Rome, will be certainly invisible to the great body of Europe's sightseers. This is the "Œuvre Pic," or Monumental Library of the Immaculate Conception, manufactured by Messrs. Christodori & Co., of the Rue de Bondy, and originally designed as an offering to the deceased Pope Pius IX. It has been more than three years in preparation, and will now, I suppose, be consigned to the Pontifical keeping of Pope Leo XIII. The teams that have been driven to the ground in every day show that our people are not behind older countries in the appreciation of the comforts and elegances of the day. In some branches of manufacture the exhibit shows commendable progress, but no honorable ambition to do good work. Our people will see what they have done upon a soil prepared but a few years ago utterly worthless, and by an interchange of ideas lay the foundation for future improvement.

SUCCESS.

The Fifth Annual Fair of the Nevada State Agricultural Mining and Mechanical Society is a great success in every respect, and the heart of every true Nevadan swells with pride at the thought that so grand an exhibition could be possible, considering that the Society has been organized but five years. Our brightest hopes are realized, and our predictions more than fulfilled. New firms; new faces, new enterprises are represented, while all the standbys are in their accustomed places, and everybody seems to have taken more interest in this fair than in any of its predecessors. The attendance has been good. Many novelties have been added to the attractions. The race track and fair grounds are a study in themselves, while the pavilion contains many new and interesting things that we doubt if many have made a critical examination of all the articles on exhibition. The display could hardly be excelled by any of the older institutions.

From one end of Main street to the other, says the Bodie Standard, on both sides, as well as on the back streets, the morning sun rises on workmen engaged putting up buildings, and the sound of the hammer and saw is heard until night comes over all, darkness only preventing the prosecution of the work. The dry for lumber, lumber, lumber, goes up from hundreds of people waiting to commence or finish their respective houses or stores, and one saw mill men are constantly being bored almost to destruction by anxious seekers after the material to build with. On lower Main street there are houses in course of erection on every vacant lot and all the way up for half a mile new buildings are springing up. The number of private dwellings and the numerous business works on the hill near town, will soon result in making Bodie second in size to any town of which the mining sections can boast. Everybody seems inspired with the idea that our town is destined to last for many years, and are preparing for its coming importance. If all signs do not fail we shall soon be called upon to chronicle a population second only to Virginia city.

GARFIELD expressed himself as being well pleased with the result of the election in Ohio. He considers it a decided Republican victory. It would have been a victory even if the Republicans had only secured the return of seven Congressmen, because by "gerrymandering" the State the Democrats intended to have left only six Republican districts. Garfield believes Thorne is excited by the result from Ohio's list of Presidential candidates. The Senator's idea was that in order to secure the Presidential nomination he must make sure of carrying his own State, and he thought he could not do this without favoring the theories of the Know-Nothing.

ELABORATE preparations are being made for the reunion of the army of the Tennessee at Indianapolis, Oct. 30th and 31st. Generals Sherman, Sheridan, Hancock, Pope, Burnside, Logan, Buel, and Jeff C. Davis will certainly attend, and other distinguished officers are expected. Indications promise a large attendance from other States.

Governor Irwin of California is recovering. He is now able to sit up.

of Benzelot, mosaic-goldsmith of the Tabernacle, and St. Eloi, patron of orfvers of France; while to the right and left of the last-named medallions are profile portraits in cowrie of the founders of and partners of the firm by which this remarkable work has been produced—Meurs, Charles and Paul Christodori, Ernest de Bibee, and Henri Bouillet. Returning to the literary portion of this astonishing medallion of decoration, I find that among the ancient languages into which Mess Van Cort, the preacher, was born in New York city, and she is nearly fifty years of age. Her father was Major Newton, manager of John Jacob Astor's estate. He became insane. Marrying and soon becoming a widow, she attended to her husband's business of drug broker. She was converted on a Fulton ferry boat while thinking about religion. Becoming a preacher she travelled through the country, and she counts more than twenty-seven thousand conversions at the result of her labors. She weighs 225 pounds, and is now in California.

The United States Consul at St. Thomas telegraphs, concerning the insurrection at Santa Cruz, as follows: "The rioters are apparently controlled. About 250 have been killed. Planters are searching the country for rioters. Four-fifths of the mills, dwellings, cane, rum and sugar on the plantations are destroyed, and all the business houses in Fredericksted. Many families are destitute. All business is temporarily suspended."

PIO NOVO

Formulated and proclaimed the dogma of the Immaculate Conception. By dint of pious zeal and indefatigable perseverance he succeeded in getting together no less than a hundred and ten volumes, enriched with miniatures and illustrations on vellum of the rarest beauty. The phenomenal trophy was presented in 1867 to the late Pope, who, in gravely accepting it, informed the Abbe Sue that he considered the collection as too exceptionally interesting to be absorbed among the immemorable treasures of the Vatican Library, and that he intended to place the hundred and ten manuscript tomes in a magnificent book case in the centre of the Salle de l'Immacule Conception, in the Pontifical palace—a grand hall adorned with paintings symbolic of the dogma, and the floor of which was mosaic pavement of the time of Augustus, discovered at Ostia. But the

ABBE SU

Respectfully insisted that France should have the honor of supplying the bookcase as well as the books. Messrs. Christodori prepared the necessary design, and an undertook to manufacture the work, which had so far advanced towards completion in February, 1877, that it was taken to Rome and exhibited to the late Pon-

te. It was then brought back to France for completion. Imagine an enormous structure of side-board shape, supported on thirty-two curved legs, carrying an grand corps forming a glass case, in which the hundred and ten books open at the most attractive pages, are displayed. Above this is a frieze richly painted with figures, and above this again, a dome surmounted by a statue of the dogma.

VIRGINIA

The table legs are of amaranth wood, richly encrusted with fillets of ebony, and with capitals and feet of bronze-gilt. There is a lower frieze, forming, as it were, the middle of the work, and made up by a series of escutcheons in cloisonne enamel, commemorating the names of pious individuals, families and painters that have most liberally subscribed towards the execution of the work. The escutcheons are connected by branches of eglantine with enameled flowers of pinky white, recalling the Eglantine of Sonder, and interspersed among them are a number of superb medallions, the gift of Pius IX, executed in the ateliers of the Vatican and representing various scenes in the Holy Land, and the churches in Santa Maria in Trastevere and Santa Maria Maggiore, the most ancient and the largest churches in Rome dedicated to the Madonna. The angles of the inferior frieze are embellished with panels in Sevres porcelain of the hue termed "Celandon," with figures in relief, executed by Mr. Solm Miles is making such notable use in England for the account of Messrs. Mintons. These plaques, emblematising the four quarters of the globe, were given by Madame la Marche de McMahon. The superior frieze contains twenty-two medallions, on a ground of precious woods in Limousin enamel. These represent divers

A PRIVATE letter from New Orleans says that the last paragraph the incorrigible joker, Nat Burbank, wrote for the Picayune, before he was taken down with the yellow fever, was something about "death loving a shining mark," alluding to the partiality shown by Bronze John for the red nosed man.

The fact that kidnapped negroes from the United States are held in slavery in the island of Cuba is vouches for by an ex-officer of the Cuban rebels named Quarata, who served also in the Union army during the rebellion. He certifies that while serving in the Cuban army he saw one of these negroes, and knew of some others, and that he believes a number of them are still on the island, having been kidnapped and sold into slavery there since the abolition of that institution in this country. Statements similar to those of Quarata have been current for some time.
